

WELBORN SULLIVAN MECK & TOOLEY, P.C.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

JoAnne Gann

jgann@wsmtlaw.com

303.830.2500

Attorneys Kelly A. Williams, Nora R. Pincus and Joshua B. Cannon Open Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley's Salt Lake City, UT Office

August 2013 (Denver, CO) The energy and natural resources law firm of Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. is pleased to announce that attorneys Kelly A. Williams, Nora R. Pincus and Joshua B. Cannon have joined the firm in our newly-opened Salt Lake City, Utah office located in the Wells Fargo Center.

Kelly Williams received her law degree from The University of Utah in 1999, and her B.A. from Utah State University cum laude. Her practice will concentrate on natural resource and public lands law, with emphasis on acquisition, exploration, permitting and production of oil, gas and mineral properties. Kelly has substantial experience preparing complex title opinions, advising clients with respect to oil and gas transactions and representing clients before the Utah Board of Oil, Gas and Mining and the Utah Division of Oil, Gas and Mining.

Nora Pincus received a B.A. in history from the University of Utah and a J.D. from the University of Denver. After law school, Ms. Pincus served a two-year clerkship with the Honorable Justice Alex J. Martinez at the Colorado Supreme Court. Nora focuses her practice on all aspects of natural resource development, with particular emphasis on oil and gas exploration and production, mining, water rights, public lands and energy transmission. She advises clients on mineral leasing, procurement and contracting, mergers and acquisitions, royalty agreements, asset purchases and entity formation and routinely assists clients with permitting and environmental compliance related to energy, mining and land development projects on public and private lands.

Joshua B. Cannon received his law degree from Washington and Lee University, an M.S. from Oregon State University and a B.S. from Utah State University. Mr. Cannon's practice focuses on energy and resource development, including corporate transactions, oil and gas title examination and opinions, business ventures and finance, mineral title dispute litigation, public land use and environmental law.

Founded in 1993, Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. is an established leader in energy, natural resources, land-based development, business transactions and litigation. With offices in Denver, Casper, and Salt Lake City, the firm's thirty-six attorneys serve clients throughout the world. For more information: www.wsmtlaw.com